

CHAPTER 77 AMUSEMENTS AND SHOWS

7.121. Traveling Shows. "Traveling shows" as used in this Chapter shall mean any traveling show, circus, animal caravan, entertainment, theatrical entertainment or exhibition, exhibition of natural or artificial curiosities, tent shows, carnivals and any amusement device or devices usually associated therewith, such as, swings, merry-go-rounds, Ferris wheels or similar devices.

7.122. License Required. No person shall conduct any traveling show as herein defined, without first obtaining a license therefor. No such license shall be granted except upon certification of the Fire Chief and the Chief of Police. The fee for such license shall be as prescribed in Chapter 72 of this Code.

7.123. Exemptions. The provisions of this Chapter shall not apply to any fair held under the direct management and supervision of any recognized agricultural association or society, nonprofit association or corporation, at which are exhibited agricultural or industrial products, principally. This Chapter shall not apply to exhibitions or shows given for charity or for the benefit of schools or benevolent, educational, fraternal, or religious societies.
